By F.M.L.

He stalks the "enemy" with helmet over the eyes and sub-machine gun at the ready.

He runs his horse at the gallop, seeing little from under red "cow-boy" he calls his hat, guns hanging heavy in holsters slapping and nipping the tops of well-worn boots.

He kicks a football with over-sized abandon, tackling himself when no one else is around, imagining, I suppose, he is playing for the old University of "U".

He rouses the "settlers" with a war whoop that sizzles his bent feather and raises a tomahawk and rustles "unseen" through a pile of leaves.

He walks to the classroom, unannounced, and looks dejected when told school is still three years away.

He characterizes, like many youngsters, imagination in action, a splendid abandon in a capsule world, and lives a life of Walter Mitty right before your eyes.

He knows many names in these many guises, which somehow all look the same.

Sometimes, it is "Angel" he calls himself and expects you to call him by.

Another time, it is "Cowboy," naturally, for what could be more suitable for a guy with Texan energy and a "horse" or two which he expends it by.

Denial follows denial when he is addressed incorrectly, particularly when a reprimand comes his way.

"I'm not Angel," is the reply. And really, he is not. He is quite a boy.

106-106-106

But the alias is important, the character is complete when the mood is right, even when he is wrong.

This time it is "Jesse James." And he is firm in this identity at the dinner table.

"Eat your dinner," he is admonished. And he frets, hungrier for a fracas than food.

"If you don't eat, you'll have to go to your room to wear those guns!" it is explained.

He bounces back into his chair, dawdles and pushes back his plate, announcing:

"Jesse James won't eat."

He didn't.

Herald Adds Column On Federal Taxes

Beginning today, The Cameron Herald will publish on a weekly basis a column of questions and answers on Federal taxes.

With the filing period for 1965 income taxes extending between January 1 and April 15, this is an appropriate time to begin a special column that answers questions that taxpayers may have about their tax returns.

The column, provided by the Internal Revenue district office, will answer questions most frequently asked by taxpayers about their filing requirements. Readers of The Cameron Herald should find it a source of enlightenment, and possibly save a phone call, a visit or a letter to the Internal Revenue office.

Internal Revenue officials say informed taxpayers, aware of their rights as well as their responsibilities, give the American tax system its strength and its effectiveness. In addition, taxpayers who are informed are less likely to underpay or overpay taxes required by law.

'Opry' Stars Plan 2nd Milam Benefit

Generous country music stars will again fill the Milam High School gym next week with two shows that will benefit the Milam Methodist Church.

Grand Ole Opry stars Kitty Wells, Johnny Wright and the "Tennessee Mountain Boys," Decca recording star Bill Phillips, Ruby Wright and others will perform at 7 and 9 p.m. Monday, January 17.

Kitty Wells, known as "Queen of Country Music" since her rise to fame in 1952, shares star billing with her husband Johnny Wright. Making the show a family affair will be Ruby Wright, blonde-haired, blue-eyed daughter of Kitty Wells and Johnny Wright.

The pretty, dark-haired Miss Wells' first big break came in 1952 when she recorded "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" for Decca Records. She joined the Grand Ole Opry that year and was the first female artist to rise above a secondary role in the country music field.

Johnny Wright, known best to country music fans for his role in the Johnny and Jack music partnership with Jack Anglin until his death in an auto accident in 1963, will be singing all the songs that he and Jack made famous over the years.

Johnny and Jack combined talents to write more than 100 songs and as the nation's top country music vocal duet they made famous such songs as "Poison Love," "Cryin' Heart Blues," "Ashes of Love," "South of New Orleans," "The Moon is High and So am I," "I Overlooked an Orchid," and "Bye, Bye Love."

Miss Ruby has been a part of show business since age 5 when she was a regular on The Merry-Go-Round show in Knoxville and through her early years added polish and experience by traveling show business circuits with her mother and father in the summer months.

At age 13, Ruby made her first record on the RCA Victor label under the name Ruby Wells. She had featured spots with the Nita, Rita and Ruby Trio from 1953 until 1959, was on several Johnny and Jack records and had a duet with Grandpa Jones entitled "Lookin' Back To See."

Since the death of her father's partner she has traveled as a regular with his group, appearing in every state in the union and all the provinces of Canada. She has appeared at the RKO Palace in New York and as a frequent guest with Roy Acuff and his show.

The Wright family, which includes two daughters and a son, makes music a family affair and togetherness is an important ingredient at their home in Nashville, Tenn.

Tennessee Governor Frank Clement praised Kitty Wells when he said, "In addition to her artistry, she has demonstrated that she is an outstanding wife and mother in keeping with the finest traditions of Southern womanhood."

Bill Phillips joined the Johnny Wright and Kitty Wells Show 4 years ago and his recordings include "Wanted" on the Decca label.

He played with local groups around Canton and Asheville, North Carolina, heading for Miami, Fla., and work on the Ole See OPRY Page 6

MASTER VIEW TO PROJECT FOR 10 YEARS

Mayor Bassel Wilson and city councilmen Tuesday night heard a second reading of a city planning ordinance, according to City Secretary Buddy Fuller.

The second reading of the ordinance is a step toward getting a master city plan, Fuller told The Herald.

Plans have been worked on for the past four months by F. Bouley Gordon, engineering and architecture firm, of Dallas.

Fuller said the firm will recommend to the City Council on a 19-year projection in the survey, when completed.

City officials are still awaiting final federal approval of the Cameron Municipal Airport expansion plan. Plans are in Washington for final FAA approval, following forwarding from the Houston FAA regional office, which was moved from Fort Worth.

Fuller said some leveling is being done at the airport site, to be enlarged some 10 or more acres with funds from state and federal sources matched with work and equipment contributions by the City of Cameron.

City Water Supt. Alvin Heft reported to councilmen that power and water connections have been made to the new Cameron Public Library, now a building at the East Fourth St. site. And he said his department had laid 720 feet of six-inch sewerline on South Walnut and is working on a six-inch waterline on North Austin.

Fuller said the City Council also discussed the 1966 city street program which is headed by the East Eighth St. projects.

Fuller pointed out that city equipment will be involved in the construction of the enlarged airport and will not be as readily available for city street projects as in recent previous years.

The City Master Plan, said to be linked with the proposed 50-unit housing project approved by the Council and City Housing Authority last summer, has also drawn the attention of the new City Planning Commission.

Planning Commission Chairman A. W. McCullin has held two meetings in recent weeks to acquaint panel members and the Council with the technical possibilities of city planning and projects.

What's the best 5-letter word for fertilizer?

And for wheat — NIPAK 45.

Get better wheat crops and earn bigger profits. Topdress your wheat with Nipak 45 right now — for greater yield and higher protein. Nipak 45 — 45% nitrogen fertilizer from Urea — gives you one-third more nitrogen per pound than any other form of solid nitrogen fertilizer — which enables you to handle less fertilizer and cover more ground in less time. Nipak 45 is uniformly drilled, too. It flows easily, won't cake, clog — or corrode your equipment. Nipak also dissolves in the soil moisture and moves quickly to the root zone where it stays put until your crops need it. So for more grow power, ask your local Nipak dealer about Nipak 45. He can help you plan a complete fertilizer program because he can provide a complete fertilizer service.

"I plan to see as many voters as I can, and still keep up the duties of my office. Some of the most satisfying aspects of the office I hold are the services our office affords children and adults of Milam County and the contacts I have with the people of Milam County. In announcing that I am offering for re-election I take this opportunity of saying 'thank you' to all my friends. I assure you your continued support and friendship will be appreciated." ## Wayne Wieser Announces For Clerk Re-Election

Wayne B. Wieser, county clerk of Milam County, has announced that he is a candidate for re-election to that office subject to the action of the Democratic primary in May.

Army Build-Up Bumps 6 Month National Guard Recruits Home

National Guard recruits will begin taking basic training in Temple Saturday, Jan. 15. Temple's guard unit, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 3rd Battalion 112th Armor, has been selected one of 31 recruit training detachments for the 49th Armored Division.

The unit will take care of the routine basic training of young recruits in the Central Texas area, to include Temple, Gatesville, Belton, Taylor and Cameron.

Instead of being shipped off for six months training in a far-away land, National Guard recruits in the past decade have been sent to a basic training center, such as Fort Polk, La., for six months training with the Army. Before 1950, such National Guard recruits were trained at their local armories.

He said the Army's training centers have become overtaxed with the recent manpower build-up and has all but delayed indefinitely the input of new reservists into the normal six months training program.

"It is impractical and unsafe to convert our untrained Guardsmen to unit live fire exercises and protected maneuvers without basic combat training," Gen. Orrick said.

For this reason, he initiated basic training classes in Cameron. Success for his division's recruits and will continue the program through June 10.

Recruits that will take the current training from the local area are PVT's Edward R. Lachnick, Louis J. Debnick, James R. Parker, Donald T. Timpler, Eugene A. Schutte, Larry A. Jackson, Martin J. Jiscot, Ronald E. Kosioren, Wesley E. Hobbs, John W. Morton, and Roy L. Simpson.

Capt. Joe C. Willingham, local guard commander, said that the local unit, other than the recruits, will train at Fort Hood January 15, 16, February 12, 13, March 23, 24, and April 23, 24. Employees are being encouraged to release

TP&L Schedules New Facilities In 1966

Texas Power & Light Company will spend $48,424,000 in 1966 for the construction of new facilities, W. W. Lynch, TP&L president, reported.

One of the major items under construction is the new generating unit, Valley No. 2, at the Valley Steam Electric Station between Sherman and Bonham in North Texas. Work began on the 537,000-kilowatt unit in 1965. It will be completed in 1968.

The company is now completing a new 500,000-kilowatt generating unit at Stryker Creek in East Texas.

Humble Seeking Re-Election As County Judge

Don Humble announced this week that he would seek re-election to the office of County Judge in the 1966 Democratic Primary and said, "I would like to sincerely thank all the people who have cooperated with me so well. I do not say this in order to comply with the old tradition adhered to by public officials, but rather out of a knowledge that this office cannot be run properly without the assistance of many other persons.

I have tried at all times to do honor to the office and, if re-elected, I shall continue in the future to run the office on the basis of honesty and integrity, accepting at all times suggestions from interested persons for the betterment of the County. I will continue to support Milam County's highway program to the limit of available funds and I will continue to use all reasonable measures to increase Milam County's financial stature. Milam County is in a good financial condition and with the help of these other persons responsible for this, I will try to keep it that way.

I feel that the past eight years have seen good management in the county judge's office and I look forward to continued progress in the coming term. The duties of my office are such that I do not have the time to properly attend to them and at the same time personally solicit every person's vote. I hope that the people of Milam County will take this announcement as a personal solicitation of their help and also take it as an invitation to come to me with any problems concerning the County at any time. I assure each of them that they will receive my cooperation at all times in working out these problems to the best interest of all concerned when possible."

Rust Spotted On Small Grain

By J. D. Moore

This is due to warm high humidity weather. On a visit to the Briary - Baileyville community last week, rust was most noticeable in volunteer oats. However, rust was first reported by mid-December in Caddo and Quannah wheat sown last fall in the Cameron area.

Farmers, Ranchers

To Pay S. Security

Tax Of 5.4 Percent

A majority of farmers and ranchers in this area must pay a federal self-employment tax for 1965, A. P. Andrews, administrative officer of Internal Revenue Service, Temple, revealed today.

He said the rate of self-employment tax for the taxable year of 1965 is 5.4 percent, and is in addition to any income tax payable.

Under the federal Social Security law, Social Security taxes are paid by employees and their employers, and the self-employment tax must be paid by persons who are self-employed. These taxes are used to pay old-age, survivors and disability benefits under the federal Social Security program.

A self-employed person is one who operates his own business, and therefore a farmer or rancher who operates a farm or ranch, either on his own land or rented from someone else, is considered self-employed. This is true even though he may employ someone else to do the work and does not live on the farm or ranch himself.

Farmers and ranchers must file federal income tax returns and pay any self-employment tax due, even though they owe no income tax, but no self-employment tax is due unless net earnings from self-employment amount to $400 or more for the year. However, farmers who have actual net earnings from the operation of their farms of less than $400 may, under certain circumstances, elect to pay the self-employment tax and may qualify to receive benefits under the Social Security system.

Farmers with tax questions should have a copy of the free official publication, "Farmer's Tax Guide," which is available from Agricultural agents, or from any IRS office.

leaf rust is caused by a fungus, the spore of which germinates in rain or dew and enters the leaf through pores or stomata in the leaf. These spores or microscopic seed of the fungus are spread by wind movement from field to field and area to area. After infection, pustules appear on the upper or lower surface and sheaths of the leaves as small, round, orange raised bumps. When these pustules rupture, they release numerous spores that become wind borne to other plants.

Several factors govern the development of rust in a given year. The amount of rust development depends on overwintering inoculum in South Texas and Mexico, prevalence of susceptible varieties being grown and prevailing weather conditions.

CONTROL

Planting of resistant varieties is the only one of these variables which a grower can control. Resistant varieties often become infected when new strains of the rust fungus develop. Such has occurred with Alamo X and Sure-grain oats as well as Caddo wheat, according to Dr. Wendell Horne, Plant Pathologist at A&M.

WHEAT LEAF vs STEM RUST

Leaf rust pustules are characterized by spots that are round to irregular in shape and are orange to yellow color. These spots may occur on either side of the leaf and on the sheath but not on the stem.

Stem rust pustules, however, are more elongated in shape and have a brick red appearance. They may occur on leaves or stems. Of the two, stem rust is much more destructive and capable of reducing small grain yields. Loss in yields from infection of the rust fungus will depend on time and amount of infection. Early season infection causes more extensive yield reduction than late season infection, according to Dr. Horne.

ASCS Report

As our population increases, more and more demand is being developed for recreational facilities. The facilities that are demanded vary in places to picnic, hunt or fish to the more elaborate vacation farms and ranches.

In some part of our state and nation, many landowners are developing the desired types of recreational facilities and are actually realizing the major portion of their income from these facilities.

Our Federal Government realizes the increased need for recreational facilities and has instructed all agencies concerned to provide assistance wherever it is needed. In certain instances, cost-share assistance, long term loans, and technical assistance are available to land owners and operators desiring to develop and install recreational enterprises.

In the Cameron trade area the most common types of recreation are hunting and fishing. There is probably more money spent on this type of sport than any other. It is estimated that there are approximately 1,000 ponds on the farms and ranches in the Cameron area that are either now producing good fishing or they are potentially good fishing waters. Proper management of the ponds is essential in order to realize the greatest amount of productive fishing.

In addition to providing fishing, these ponds also provide watering places for dove, deer, etc.

Deer hunting is becoming more popular each year. The deer population is not as high in our area as it is in other parts of the state but it is showing an increase each year. Most of the deer in our area are east of Cameron in and near the Milano-Gause communities. There are many ranches in this vicinity where the deer hunting rights are leased each year.

The different types of recreational enterprises bring additional income into the Cameron trade area through leases and the purchasing of equipment and supplies. With the proper management and development of recreation and wildlife lands, this can be increased even more.

Agri-Industry Figures . . .

Latest figures from the Texas Almanac, 1966-67 edition, shows the relative position of agriculture and payroll in Milam County.

Value of crops and livestock is listed at $9,176 million for the year cited and $14.02 million paid in wages, a substantial part being the industrial payroll at Rockdale.

It suggests that an economic balance of agriculture and industry is swaying to the latter as industrial payroll increases while agriculture, for various reasons, remains constant or diminishes somewhat.

Alcoa says that IGC and Alcoa payrolls combine to something like $10.5 million alone. Other payrolls, unquestionably oriented, in part, to agriculture, raise the total above the $14 million figure. We refer to cotton gins, maize storage, fertilizer plants, compress warehousing and other related farm industry.

Agriculture will maintain a dominant force in Milam County, without doubt, but not as a direct employer. Bulk of the jobs is the related industries as well as Alcoa, distribution plants, Wallad Lake Door and others.

The farm, like the plant, is big, automated business. And Texas Almanac's latest figures show how the trend goes.

A Red Dove Of Peace? . . .

Soviet Russia is playing a curious role in any prospect of a peace parley between Hanoi and Washington.

Officially denying such a role and publicly denouncing U.S. "imperialism", Soviet diplomacy nonetheless must have made contracts in Hanoi for a settlement while the U.S. banned bombing. It is apparent that Russia prefers the co-existence of the U.S. to the militancy of Red China.

This is rather a new role for Russia. Soviet Premier Kossygin was host at Tashkent in the USSR when India's Shastri, 61, died of a heart attack shortly after signing an interim peace treaty with Pakistan.

Behind-the-scene efforts have been underway in the Vietnam situation, however. Throughout, Russia would be the balance of power, much like the old role of England in Europe, still sustaining Communist influence while diminishing the thrust of Chinese Communism.

Russia would thus capitalize on Washington efforts to contain Viet Cong southward expansion and at the same time maintain influence with the Hanoi Communist regime.

There is the possibility that militant Communist leadership is running its course. Mao Tse-Tung is said to be in ill health and that younger, less militant leadership is awaiting the rise to power.

One observer recalls, in retrospect, the U.S. position in Vietnam in the words of General Walter Bedel Smith who said, in effect, that a strong position at the bargaining table is determined by strong victories in the field.

U.S. policy seems directed toward an amicable solution, based on a strengthened military position. Various efforts in re-educating and propagandizing are reported more effective as 7,000 Viet Cong (or sympathizers) in 1965 compared to half that number in 1964 have defected to the South.

With the U.S. massing artillery and infantry attacks, the effort now is to confine, minimize and destroy in legitimate battle the elusive Viet Cong. As yet, they are hard to bottle up.

Texas Schools To Be Studied

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—Most-comprehensive and best-financed study ever undertaken of the Texas school system is about to get under way.

Gov. John Connally has appointed a 15-member committee to make an intensive three-year study of Texas schools.

Committee will draw up guidelines to aid the Legislature in drafting new laws to strengthen the traditional system of education in the state. It has $250,000 (plus federal funds) with which to make the study.

By Aug. 31, 1968, it must prepare a long-range plan "that will enable Texas to emerge as a national leader in educational aspiration, commitment and achievement."

Committee will study buildings, books, equipment, teachers, teaching methods and teaching aids. It also will propose ways to strengthen our public schools.

This Public School Study Committee, authorized by the Legislature, is composed of school and college educators, employers and employees, farmers and businessmen.

Members are Leon Jaworski, Houston, Joe E. Chapa, San Manuel, Kermit Dyche, Alvin, and Paul Heas, Corpus Christi. Also M. K. Hage, Austin, Mrs. George Hawn, Corpus Christi, and Harold Hitt of Midland.

Others are Frank W. Hubert College Station, June Hyer, Houston, Morgan Jones Jr., Abilene, Mrs. Savannah Cross Lockey, Troup, James McCracklin, San Marcos, Loyd Turner, Fort Worth, Dick West, Dallas, and Mrs. Helen A. Wright of Nacogdoches. ROAD NOW CLEARED

State Board of Education has paved the way for private schools to obtain federal funds for training students under the manpower training program. This was done with the adoption of a 15-point plan applicable to non-public school participants.

Included in the plan were seven recommendations by the federal government and eight dealing with state policies.

Board also approved plans to add international flavor to public schools and to promote fuller understanding of education. They set up a public information committee to distribute articles on the educational program.

Texas Education Agency staff will be enlarged to handle the increased work load.

REDISTRICTING UPHOLD

The 59th Legislature's version of congressional redistricting has been upheld by a special three-judge federal court—and candidates for the 23 places are starting to emerge.

Act gives Dallas two and Houston three congressmen.

Bexar County shares a second and third representative with areas to the north and south, and Tarrant will share a second congressman with surrounding territory.

A brand new 23rd district is created in South Texas, extending as far north as southern San Antonio.

Court said that in carving districts with a maximum 9.7 per cent population from average, the Legislature made "a good, safe effort toward achieving substantial numerical equality." However, the judges maintained jurisdiction of suit attacking redistricting (until August, 1967), and asked the Legislature to try to make districts even more equal next year.

State Sen. Abraham (Chick) Kazen of Laredo said he will be a candidate for the 23rd district race. Randolph A. Sherwood of Von Ormy also announced.

State Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin is expected to try for one of the expanded East Texas districts. Congressmen Jack Brooks of Beaumont and Clark Thompson of Galveston will be in the same district.

Congressmen Ray Roberts of McKinney and Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater are also in one district.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas finance companies are subject to both banking and small loan regulation when they make loans of more than $1,500, the State Supreme Court held.

Over objections of two judges, the court again upheld the 22-year-old doctrine of "charitable immunity." Under this doctrine churches are not liable for negligence in personal injury suits.

Latest test of the doctrine came in a suit against Southeast Baptist Church of Lubbock by a woman who slipped on the church floor.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the death sentence assessed Melvin Lee Nixon of Houston in the fatal shooting of a grocery store owner.

Same court cites statistics showing a 27 per cent increase last year in the number of cases filed with it for review. Also a 34 per cent increase in cases disposed of and a 93 per cent jump in the number of writs denied.

Court is expected to press for increased membership next year.

NYC PROJECTS APPROVED

Governor Connally has announced the approval of a Neighborhood Youth Corps Project for Galveston County, Texas, covering Galveston, Texas City, Dickinson and La Marque, carries a $139,520 federal grant and $33,590 in local support.

OFFICIALS TAKE LOOK

Texas Welfare officials want to look at other states' plans for taking advantage of increased federal aid for medical care for the aged on welfare rolls.

Because the criteria for applications under the 1965 Social Security Act haven't been established, officials want to see how other states handle the situation.

Increase in assistance grants extends the existing Kerr-Mills medical aid for the aged to others on public welfare. It involves a national total of $238,000,000 in medical aid for the poor.

TREASURY BILLS LOST

A total of $20,000 in U.S. Treasury bills is missing from the State Treasury, reports State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

How they disappeared is a mystery.

According to Treasurer Jesse James, "nobody will lose a cent" as the loss is covered by insurance.

Duplicate treasury notes are being issued, and the U.S. Treasury has agreed to stop payment on the notes.

James, who learned of the bills' disappearance three months ago, said he thinks they simply were misplaced—not stolen.

James said he didn't tell the public of the mysterious disappearance of the bills because he thought they would turn up at any time.

CAN THEY OR CAN'T THEY?

State Democratic Chairman Will D. Davis is studying the law to determine whether or not Sens. Franklin Spears of San Antonio and Galloway Calhoun Jr. of Tyler may run for attorney general this year.

Question arises out of a legislative act last spring giving the attorney general a pay raise.

Texas' constitution provides that a member of the Legislature can't be a candidate for an office, the emoluments of which have been increased by the Legislature, "during the term to which he is elected."

Calhoun and Spears hope to replace the present attorney general who will be campaigning for the U.S. Senate.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Sage Thinks He's Discovered Prime Reason

For The Frantic Rush To Get To The Moon

I was out here on this Johnson grass farm yesterday changing the props on my barn from the north side to the south side, since winter's north winds have returned and the lean is now in the other direction, and at the same time wondering if it wouldn't improve the natural beauty of America if the government just planted shrubbery around my farm, when I noticed a copy of a newspaper caught in a crack in the planks and I got around on the protected side and looked it over.

According to it the National Science Advisory Committee is worried about air pollution in cities and is suggesting that businesses be taxed on the basis of how much air they pollute, with additional taxes for minor pollution, like automobile exhaust, done by individuals. The committee said the air in cities is being poisoned and something ought to be done about it.

I don't know whether this would be helpful or not, but you reckon Congress ought to require cities to erect signs at their city limits, train stations and airports saying: "Warning, Breathing This Air May Be Hazardous To Your Health?"

The same article went on to say that the sheer problem of hauling the trash out of a big city is becoming almost insurmountable, pointing out that Americans now use 40 billion cans and 26 billion bottles and jars a year. Getting that many cans and bottles out of the city in one year is hard enough, but have you ever stopped to think how many that'll be in 100 years, and how much land in the country it's going to take to bury them in?

This may be the prime thinking behind the rush to get to the moon. We've got to find some place to dump those cans and bottles, or give up farming on earth. I apologize for the doubts I've been throwing on the space program.

Living in a big city may be like Viet Nam. Whether it was a mistake or not to be there, how're you going to get out?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Memorial Fund Inaugrated By Cancer Society

In response to numerous requests from families and individuals, the American Cancer Society has inaugurated a memorial fund. Families and friends of cancer victims are invited to contribute to commemorate their loved ones.

"Contributions made in memory of a friend or a member of the family are acknowledged by the American Cancer Society, and a memorial card is sent to the family stating that a memorial gift has been received and giving the name of the donor. These contributions may be in any amount," said Rev. E. L. Strickland, Treasurer and Memorial Chairman of the Milam County Unit. "Memorial funds are used to support the Society's three-fold attack on cancer through research, education, and service," explained Rev. Strickland.

"Although the major source of funds for this program comes from the Society's annual April Crusade, memorial funds received throughout the year are becoming increasingly important to the Society as more families and individuals become aware that they can contribute to the ultimate victory over this dread disease."

Rev. Strickland also explained that the American Cancer Society is deeply grateful to individuals and families throughout the county who are using this practical means of assisting the Society to carry on the fight against cancer.

IRS Answers Tax Quetions

(Ed. Note: Following is first in a series on Federal taxes provided by U.S. Internal Revenue Service and published in the public interest by The Herald.)

Q - Where can I get the form I need to report sick pay which I want to exclude from my taxable income?

A - Form 2440, "Statement to Support Exclusion of Sick Pay," is available at any IRS office. You also may find the tax forms you need in many banks and post offices.

Q - Do you have to be married to get the head of household income tax rates?

A - No you don't. On page 4 of the 1966 instructions you will find an explanation of whether you qualify for these rates. Head of household tax rates cannot be used if you are married and can file a joint return.

Q - How much can a child earn and still be claimed as a dependent and still be claimed as a dependent?

A - If your child is under 19 or is a full-time student, you may claim him as a dependent as long as you provide more than 1/2 of his total support for the year regardless of the amount of income he may have. Otherwise, he may not be claimed as a dependent if he has gross income of $600 or more.

Q - I have a disability pension from Social Security. Is this taxable for me?

A - No. Social Security benefits are not taxable.

Q - When my widowed father retired he went back to Ireland to live. He has only a small $300 pension and I supply his chief support. Can I claim him as a dependent even though he is not in this country?

A - If he is a U.S. citizen and you have provided his chief support then the fact that he lives in Ireland would not disqualify him as a dependent. One of the requirements for a dependent is that he be either a U.S. citizen, or a resident of the U.S., Canada, Mexico, the Panama Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama for some part of the tax year.

Q - I didn't get a blank income tax return in the mail. Where can I get the necessary forms?

A - You can get them at any IRS office and at most post offices and banks.

Q - What can I do with child support payments I am required to make? Are they deductible?

A - Child support payments are not deductible by you nor are they taxable to your former wife. However, if you provide more than 1/2 of the child's support, then you may claim the $600 dependency exemption on your return.

Q - Tips are one of my sources of income. What is the best way to keep track of them? I work as a waitress.

A - A daily diary is one of the best records you could keep. Every day enter in it the amount of tips you receive that day.

Don't forget that starting this year income and Social Security tax will be withheld from your wages on your tip income. You are required to report to your employer what you receive in tips if it amounts to $20 or more a month and was earned while working for one employer.

The withholding requirement would not apply if your tips amounted to $30 a month but were split between jobs with two employers, so that you received less than $20 from each place you worked that month. However, the $30 in tips is taxable income and must be included in your tax return.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK

Millions Leave Them There!

Just Whittling Or Making Something?

Some whittling produces beautiful carvings, useful articles or repairs, while other whittling produces just whittlings.

Whittling and life have certain similarities. Some lives prove great gifts to mankind — leaders, scientists, physicians and ministers — to name but a few. Other lives just drift or are "whittled" away leaving nothing beneficial or beautiful behind.

The church can and often does lend a helping hand to put direction into lives that are drifting because of some misfortune, loss or turn of events that has destroyed faith. The church salvages lives and gives them direction and incentive to become useful and admirable citizens. If you know of someone whose life has become mainly "whittlings", who has not tried church attendance for direction and guidance, try to prevail upon him to accompany you to services. You may well be responsible for providing him with new bonds of hope.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

When Bankruptcy Won't Help

Motorist A, held liable for an accident, was ordered to pay more than his insurance coverage, more than everything he owned. In desperation, he decided to go through bankruptcy. Although this left him poor, at least he was relieved of his overwhelming burden of debt.

Motorist B, in a similar predicament, also tried bankruptcy. But in his case, that didn't help. Even after going through bankruptcy, liability for the accident still hung over him as heavily as before.

The difference in these two cases illustrates an important provision of the Bankruptcy Act. Bankruptcy does cancel most debts, but not all. One debt it does not cancel is liability for "willful and malicious" injuries inflicted on others.

Motorist A had caused his accident by just driving a bit too fast. The court held this was not "willful and malicious."

But motorist B had been driving at high speed during a storm, on the wrong side of the road, while under the influence of liquor. The court decided this was indeed "willful and malicious" conduct - and not even bankruptcy could save him from responsibility for it.

Most often, such questions arise out of auto accidents. But any kind of willful and malicious act may put the offender beyond the relief of bankruptcy. Consider these cases.

A cantankerous home owner, to scare away some boys, fired at them with an air gun, injuring one in the eye.

A disgruntled boy friend spread slanderous stories about a girl's reputation.

The owner of a dog known to be vicious let it run loose on the streets, where it attacked a passing pedestrian.

In each case, after a judgement for damages, the offender went into bankruptcy in hopes of "getting out from under." But in each case, even after bankruptcy, he was held still liable for the willful and malicious harm he had done.

A keynote of the Bankruptcy Act is sympathy for the hapless debtor. But, in the willful-and-malicious cases, the law's sympathy is dampened by behavior that is not just foolish but wrongful.

Besides, the law owes consideration not only to the debtor but also to the person who has been run down, shot, slandered, or bitten.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

How Are Your Shopping Manners?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

"Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy." Ralph Waldo Emerson

Recently we were the dinner guests of a certain socially prominent lady. She was charming, good manners and social grace all in one beautiful groomed package. Alas, the next day, I watched her shop. Our charming hostess had become a harpie. She left her good manners at home! How do you rate as a considerate shopper?

- |   | YES | NO  |
| 1. Do you ask to be shown merchandise when you are really interested in buying rather than shopping as a form of entertainment?     | ( ) | ( ) |
| 2. Do you pull merchandise out of the packages, unfold garments and leave the shambles to be put in order by the clerk?             | ( ) | ( ) |
| 3. Do you wait your turn to be served by the sales person?  | ( ) | ( ) |
| 4. Can you resist the temptation of handling things UNLESS you are seriously interested in purchasing it?                           | ( ) | ( ) |
| 5. Have you trained your children to be quiet, not to run or play and to stay away from merchandise when they go shopping with you? | ( ) | ( ) |
| 6. Do you treat the sales personnel politely rather than acting as if they were moronic slaves?                                     | ( ) | ( ) |
| 7. Do you take up the clerk's time with gossip or unimportant questions when other customers are waiting to be served?              | ( ) | ( ) |

IN A SUPERMARKET:

- |  |     |     |
|--|-----|-----|
| 8. Do you leave your cart in the middle of the aisle while you look for an item?   | ( ) | ( ) |
| 9. Do you approach "blind corners" slowly just as you would if driving a car?  | ( ) | ( ) |
| 10. Do you avoid cutting through check-out lanes?  | ( ) | ( ) |
| 11. Do you remove cans and packages from the TOP of piles?   | ( ) | ( ) |
| 12. When you lean over, do you keep both feet on the floor under you?  | ( ) | ( ) |
| 13. Are you a tester? (e.g. pinch fruit and put it back, open sacks, packages, and boxes and then return them to the shelves?) | ( ) | ( ) |

DESIRABLE ANSWERS:

All answers should be YES, except 2, 7, 8 and 13. (Note: Modern supermarkets and department stores have actually been the scenes of accidents -- sprained ankles, mashed fingers, rear-end collisions, etc.

It pays to be polite when shopping, if only for self-preservation.

SCORING:

10-13 correct: Shopping is easy for you because you are gracious and know what you want. Clerks see this and are helpful.

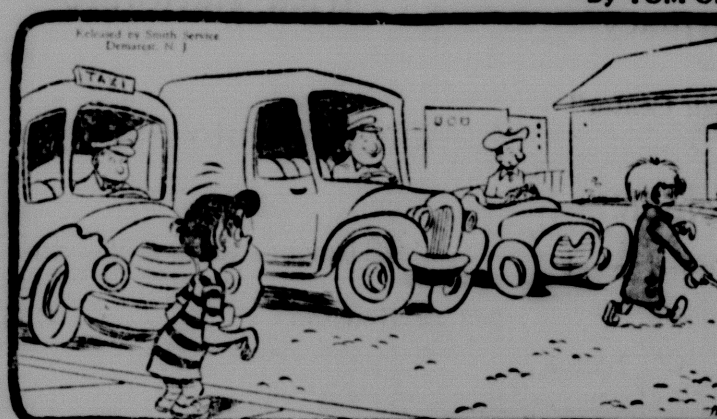

5-9 correct: Pressures of time and fatigue sometimes make you forget your shopping manners. But you are on the right track, so relax and enjoy buying the things you need.

0-4 correct: For the peace of mind of clerks and other customers you should do your shopping by phone.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

A good gun can last a lifetime. Such a guarantee - covering defective material and workmanship - now goes to every purchaser of one company's shotguns. But there is little reason why most any good gun can't last well beyond the life of its owner. All it takes is a little care.

Too many of us get careless with guns. We fail to clean and oil them properly. We toss them around in the back seat of an automobile, or store them away for several months of the year in some damp spot where rust can develop.

In the olden days much better care was taken of fowling pieces. In the first place, a gun was essential to a man. He needed it for taking food and sometimes for protection. He used it for taking protection. He used black powder, with mercuric primers that would cause corrosion.

Back in those days when the hunter came home he swabbed out the tubes of his shotgun with soap suds, or wiped his rifle barrel clean with a good commercial cleaner capable of eliminating the mercury flakes from the primer.

Then along came the non-mercuric primers. Black powder gave way to smokeless and we were told it was no longer necessary to clean a gun after every shoot.

Some believed this. As a result their guns became pitted. Not from the effects of the primer and powder, but from handling and moisture that got into the barrels.

If you are shooting a gun every day, it still is a good idea to clean it often. It should be wiped thoroughly with a silicone cloth after every handling.

I know a fellow who has a cabinet containing a dozen or more fine guns. They are behind a locked glass door, away from easy handling. But occasionally some friend does get to look them over. Before they are put back into their rack they are wiped over with the silicone cloth. This prevents any possibility of barrel rust from damp fingers, or handprints.

This chap has one gun in his case that is 60 years old. It has been used a lot under almost every condition. First shells shot in it were black powder with mercury primers. But today that gun is just as shiny as it can be. It has no rust spots, even though the blue is worn thin in places. And the wood still retains its polish.

There are many agents on the market today for cleaning guns. Some are solvents, some are inhibitors which can be applied under pressure. Then there are the old reliable oils, any of which will do a good job.

Many gun owners find that a 15 cent can of household lubricant available in any service station is adequate. It certainly is better than nothing at all.

If you treat your gun properly you won't care whether it is guaranteed for your lifetime or not. It still will be shooting good when it passes into the hands of your grandson.
